Highlights in this release

Log invoiced price rows and exclude from future invoices (KERNEL-1085)

When you create a client invoice, each individual price row on a project is now flagged as invoiced, including date. If the same project is invoiced again, these price rows will be excluded from the total sum, as well as the PDF/Excel export.

These projects contain price rows that have already been invoiced. These rows will be excluded from the invoice.

Additional GraphQL support

As in most releases these days, a lot of focus on GraphQL. This batch includes querying additional company information, creating job quicklinks and downloading custom subtitle files over API.

Bug fix: MS file preview broken in Online review mode (CICD-97)

Just what it says in the header, was broken, now fixed.
